

The diagram features a light blue background with a horizontal line representing the water surface. Above the line is a white, jagged iceberg tip. Below the line is a larger, darker blue iceberg body. The text is arranged in three horizontal sections, with labels on the left and descriptions on the right.

Research methods

Techniques
applied

Research strategies

Systematisation
into a coherent whole

Philosophical traditions

Underlying sets of beliefs